

Summaries Spring 2020

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior who copy and pasted answers from the internet on a take home exam without citation was suspended for two terms and must petition for reinstatement.

A senior was placed on one term of probation for plagiarizing from Wikipedia.

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior charged with academic dishonesty for improper citation on a senior thesis was reprimanded.

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A senior was placed on probation for one term for trespassing on campus multiple times during the covid-19 lockdown.

A senior charged with plagiarizing a paper was reprimanded.

A junior charged with imperiling the integrity and values of the community for removing his clothes during a football game was a reprimanded.

A senior was reprimanded for leaving a candle unattended in the dorm room, which started a fire and caused property damage and water damage from the sprinkler system. The student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A senior was reprimanded for inappropriately using an outside source in answering a problem set and then submitting the source material by accident.

A senior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A senior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A senior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A senior who copied one question from a previous year's solution key to complete a problem set was reprimanded.

A junior who collaborated with another student on a final take home exam and submitted identical answers was placed on probation for the remainder of their time at Yale.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

The charges were withdrawn after investigation from a junior charged with cheating during a final exam.

A junior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A junior who collaborated with another student on final take home test was placed on probation for the remainder of their time at Yale

A junior who copied another student's answers during a mid-term exam was placed on probation for the remainder of their time at Yale.

A junior who did not cite sources correctly in a paper was reprimanded and required to complete relevant education and training.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A junior charged with academic dishonesty was reprimanded.

A junior who copied another student's answers during a mid-term exam was suspended for one term.

A junior was reprimanded for defiance of authority and acts of violence.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A junior charged with plagiarizing a final term paper was reprimanded.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A junior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A junior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A junior who submitted a similar lab report as another student was reprimanded for academic dishonesty and required to complete a relevant educational assignment.

A junior was found not responsible for academic dishonesty following a formal hearing.

A junior who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A junior charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

The charges were withdrawn after investigation from a junior charged with cheating during a final exam.

A junior was found not responsible for academic dishonesty following a formal hearing.

A junior who stole a bicycle was placed on probation for one term.

A junior was reprimanded for misrepresenting her situation to a professor while asking for accommodations during the COVID crisis.

A sophomore charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A sophomore who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

The charges were withdrawn after investigation from a sophomore charged with sharing their work with another student.

A sophomore who tampered with building fire protection and detection systems was reprimanded.

The charges were withdrawn after investigation from a sophomore charged with fire safety violations.

A sophomore who tampered with building fire protection and detection systems was reprimanded.

A sophomore who shared their p-set with another student was reprimanded.

A sophomore was reprimanded for copying two homework assignments from a student who took the class the previous year.

A sophomore who tampered with building fire protection and detection systems was reprimanded.

A sophomore was reprimanded for plagiarizing a few sentences from Cliffs Notes without citation.

A sophomore who tampered with building fire protection and detection systems was reprimanded.

A sophomore charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A sophomore charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A sophomore who used another student's work to complete five p-sets was suspended for one term.

A sophomore who tampered with building fire protection and detection systems was reprimanded.

A sophomore who refused to leave 55 Whitney Avenue at 5 pm when asked by YPD and was reprimanded for trespassing.

A sophomore who copied another student's p-set was placed on probation for one term.

A sophomore charged with academic dishonesty was found not responsible.

A sophomore who plagiarized an essay was placed on three terms probation.

A sophomore who collaborated inappropriately with another student on a quiz and was found to have lied to the committee was placed on two terms suspension and must petition for reinstatement.

A first-year student was reprimanded for improper collaboration on a lab report.

A first-year charged with imperiling the integrity and values of the community was found not responsible.

A first-year charged with cheating during a mid-term exam was found not responsible.

A first-year charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A first-year was found not responsible for inappropriate collaboration on lab reports.

A first-year was given two semesters of probation for copying the work of another student on multiple lab reports.

A first-year charged with interference with University functions, defiance of authority and trespassing, for refusing to leave the Yale bowl field when asked by police, was reprimanded. In addition, the student was required to complete a relevant educational project.

A first-year who used an online solution to complete a p-set without citing the source was reprimanded.

A first-year charged with plagiarizing a paper was reprimanded.

A first-year student was reprimanded for improper collaboration on a lab report

A first-year was reprimanded for copying another student's answers during a midterm exam.

A first year charged with improper collaboration was found not responsible for academic dishonesty after a hearing.

A first-year charged with academic dishonesty during a final exam was reprimanded.

A first-year who plagiarized a paper was reprimanded.

A first-year who committed acts of force and harassment was placed on four terms of probation.

A first-year who used an online solution to a p-set without citing the source was reprimanded and was required to complete a relevant educational assignment.

A first-year student was found not responsible for plagiarizing.

A first-year who plagiarized a lab report was reprimanded.

A first-year charged with sharing their work with another student was found not responsible.

The charges were withdrawn after investigation from a first-year charged with acts of violence or physical force, intimidation, harassment, or coercion and misconduct during a formal hearing.

A first-year charged with intimidation and actions which may imperil the integrity and values of the University was found not responsible after a hearing.