

Yale College Executive Committee Case Summaries, Spring 2024

A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing three psets was reprimanded.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using AI to complete the first essay in the course was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding imperiling the values and integrity of the university community was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating on a mid-term proctored exam was placed on probation for three terms. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.
After investigation, the charges were withdrawn for a sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresentation, improper use of university facilities, and unauthorized use of services or facilities for misrepresenting facts in order to secure equipment to use for off campus engagements.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for completing a Canvas-administered exam outside of the designated classroom without supervision was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a final paper was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriately collaborating on a midterm exam was reprimanded.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding imperiling the integrity and values of the university community was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year student charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
After investigation, the charges were withdrawn for a senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority, and trespassing.

A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for copying another student's code was placed on probation for one term.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding housing, defiance of authority and misrepresentation for staying in the on-campus room while on leave was placed on probation for three terms.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for sharing the answers to the pset was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing with the use of ChatGPT in a final essay was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating on a final exam was reprimanded.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
After investigation, the charge was withdrawn for a first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresentation for lying to a professor about a family issue to get an extension was found not responsible after a hearing.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a final project was placed on probation for one term.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding housing violations, defiance of authority, theft and willful property damage, and trespassing for moving into an unoccupied room without permission, causing monetary damages to the room and furniture, and refusing to move out of the room when notified to do so by the college housing office, was placed on probation for the remainder of their time at Yale.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating on a mid-term proctored exam was placed on probation for three terms. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using outside sources without proper citation was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresentation, improper use of university facilities and unauthorized use of services or facilities was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.

A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for misusing ChatGPT and inappropriate collaboration was reprimanded for misusing ChatGPT and found not responsible for inappropriate collaboration.
A sophomore, with a previous disciplinary history, charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a final project was placed on probation for three terms and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A sophomore, with a previous disciplinary history, charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing psets was suspended for three terms.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for sharing their homework answers with another student was reprimanded.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding trespassing, falsification of documents, and offenses compromising campus security was expelled. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for copying another student's answers during a final exam was placed on probation for four terms.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding the regulations on harassment, imperiling the integrity and values of the university community, and willful property damage was suspended for three terms. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimand via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresentation and unauthorized use of services or facilities was found responsible for unauthorized use of services or facilities and was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for submitting two class solutions from the previous year was found not responsible after hearing.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.

A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for misusing ChatGPT and inappropriate collaboration was reprimanded for misusing ChatGPT and found not responsible for inappropriate collaboration.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a final paper was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
After investigation, the charge was withdrawn for a junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration and copying another student's code was placed on probation for one term.
After investigation, the charge was withdrawn for a first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarism on psets.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating off another student during a final exam was placed on probation for four terms.
After investigation, the charges were withdrawn for a sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority, and trespassing.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a grant proposal was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding imperiling the integrity and values of the university community was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for sharing solutions to a pset was reprimanded.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating on a final exam was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.

A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using another student's pset to complete their own was reprimanded.
After investigation, the charge was withdrawn for a junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating in an academic competition.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding falsification of documents and misrepresentation for embellishing their résumé and altering their academic record, and for lying to their dean to gain extensions, was suspended for four terms via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating off another student during a final exam was placed on probation for four terms.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresentation; activities and events, and unauthorized use of services or facilities for lying about where an event was being held in order to secure university equipment was placed on probation for one term.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded.
A sophomore, with previous disciplinary history, charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for copying another student's answers on a pset was placed on probation for three terms.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a midterm exam was reprimanded.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A senior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing a final paper was placed on probation for one term and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A first year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a pset was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for copying answers off another student during a final exam was found not responsible after a hearing.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding misrepresenting interactions with the college dean and professor was placed on probation for one term.
A senior, with a previous disciplinary history, charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity, falsification of documents and misrepresentation for submitting a falsified medical excuse to gain accommodations in two courses was found responsible and the degree was withheld for four terms, equivalent to suspension for four terms. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.

A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding interference with university functions, defiance of authority and trespassing was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for cheating on a final exam was suspended for one term.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarizing an essay was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using ChatGPT to complete a pset was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using ChatGPT on a final project was reprimanded.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for one term. The student appealed the decision to the Committee of Review who recommended no reconsideration of the Executive Committee's decision.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration and copying another student's work and submitting it as their own was placed on probation for one term.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for sharing their assignments with two other students was reprimanded via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for plagiarism was placed on probation for two terms and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.

A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for using AI to write a paper without citing that use was reprimanded and required to attend an educational sanction meeting through the Poorvu Center.
A junior charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration on a take-home final was placed on probation for two terms via agreement of responsibility.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for not citing sources used in an essay was placed on probation for one term via agreement of responsibility.
A sophomore charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for inappropriate collaboration was reprimanded.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for allowing another student to copy multiple answers during a final exam was found not responsible after a hearing.
A first-year charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding academic integrity for copying another student's answers on a final exam was placed on probation for three terms.
A first-year with a prior disciplinary history, charged with violating the Undergraduate Regulations regarding defiance of authority, trespassing, theft and willful property damage, and harassment, intimidation, or coercion was expelled for defiance of authority, trespassing and theft and willful property damage. The charge of harassment, intimidation, or coercion was withdrawn.